

YONDA JONES

Serving the Lord in THAILAND

December 2005

Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you so much for your continued prayers over the past several months. At the end of August, I finished my job at Highlands Baptist Church. I had been secretary there for 7 1/2 years. Although in some ways it was hard to no longer work there after so long, I was very happy to be able to focus more of my time on deputation ministries. In the months of October and November, I was able to share my burden for Thailand in four missions conferences and seven other individual church services. It was a blessing to meet many new friends in Wyoming, Colorado, Wisconsin, and Illinois, who have promised their prayers. Over the holiday season, the meetings have slowed down considerably, but it has been exciting to see the Lord's faithfulness in providing for my needs even without meetings. I am looking forward to getting back out in January to continue presenting the ministry opportunities in Thailand.

Praises

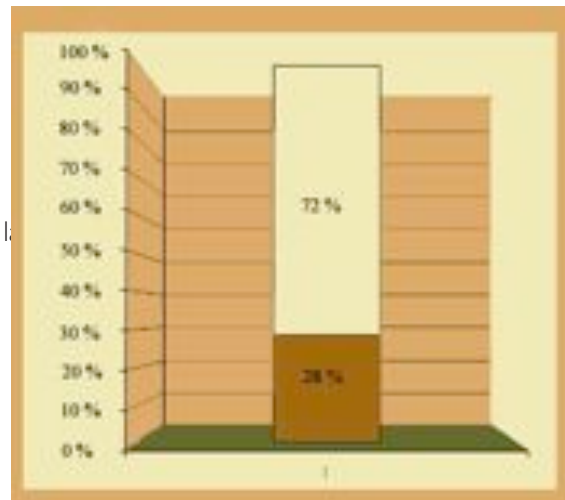

- ☐ My support level is still at 28%, but several churches are making decisions over the next month.
- ☐ I have learned that I should be able to get a full scholarship for studies in Bangkok.

Prayer Requests

- ☐ My condo is still on the market. Please continue to pray that it will sell soon.
- ☐ I need more meetings. I am continuing to make calls in order to schedule meetings. Please pray that my itinerary will fill up quickly.
- ☐ Financial support – I am praying to be able to raise the remainder of my support so that I can be in Thailand by December 2006 or January 2007 to start my language studies.

In Him,

Yonda Jones

“...Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.”

Mark 10:14

“...I send thee, To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God...”

Acts 26:17-18
